Join us to save legal aid Friday 12 December

On Friday 12 December the High Court will hear our legal challenge against the domestic violence gateways for family law legal aid.

Join us at a demonstration outside the Royal Courts of Justice on the Strand, London WC2A 2LL at 9.30am to help us raise awareness of the impact the legal aid cuts are having on women affected by violence.

Bring banners, whistles, colleagues and friends!

If you can't be there, follow events on the day on Twitter at the #savelegalaid #ibelieveher. You can take your own jelfie in support of the campaign. Print out the attached and take a selfie or a team photo and upload it to Twitter to join the campaign.

Find out more about the case and our campaign here <http://rightsofwomen.org.uk/get-involved/campaign-with-us/#legal%20aid>

Please circulate this through your networks.

We look forward to seeing you there and thank you for your support of our campaign on this vital issue for women.
